

Benefits of Affiliate Membership

The REALTOR® Association of Southern Minnesota founded in 1947 exists to enhance the member's ability to conduct business successfully, cooperatively, competently and profitably. The Association currently has over 450 members and covers a ten county area.

Affiliate members have long been an integral part of the association. Affiliate members are individuals or companies having an interest in the real estate industry. Affiliate members include mortgage companies, title companies, banks, savings and loans, attorneys, appraisers, and home inspectors. Affiliates support the association and may serve as volunteers on several association committees.

Affiliate members enjoy many benefits of membership:

Education: Affiliate members are invited to attend any RASM education program at member prices.

Networking: As an Affiliate member of the REALTOR® Association of Southern Minnesota you are recognized as a leader in the real estate community and that you offer valuable services to the industry. Affiliate members may participate in networking activities to solicit REALTOR® business.
